Maretron Announces the Appointment of Denpar as its New Distributor in Turkey

PHOENIX, Mar 24, 2010 – Maretron announces the selection of Denpar Makina Ithalat Ihracat Sanayi Ve Ticaret Ltd Sti of Turkey as its latest appointment amongst several new international distributors. Denpar's appointment as a Maretron distributor is effective immediately. Denpar recently showcased the Maretron product line at the Istanbul Boat Show that was held in February 2010.

Maretron, a leader in NMEA 2000[®] technology and a provider of a new generation of affordable Vessel Monitoring Systems "is pleased to have found such a capable partner as Denpar to help develop the Maretron product line in one of the more currently active markets of Europe," says Larry Anderson, Vice President of Sales & Marketing at Maretron.

Mr. Mehmet Yucad, co-owner and manager of Denpar, says "the addition of Maretron products to our line of well known product brands, such as Kohler and Yanmar, will enable us to introduce NMEA 2000[®] networking and vessel monitoring capability into the marine marketplace of Turkey, along with establishing the selling, servicing and product support from our network of dealers with these attractive products."
