

Product Alert Notice

3G Cellular Communications

Effective Date: 06/01/2022

The following product has been issued for an alert notification

- SMS100-01 Maretron Short Message Service (text) module

Reason: In the United States, the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) is notifying users that mobile service providers have begun phasing out and discontinuing all 3G services.

As a result of this decision, the SMS100 has been discontinued and an upgraded model utilizing 4G/5G is in development.
