

What is a DST100?

A DST100 is a product that is mounted through the hull below the water line of a vessel and is used to measure water depth, speed through water, sea water temperature, depth transducer offset, resettable trip log, cumulative log. All of this information is transmitted over an NMEA 2000 network where it can be displayed by any NMEA 2000 compatible display.

Online URL:

<https://www.maretron.com/wp-content/phpkbv96/article.php?id=170>